

St Thomas More Language College

Poetry Competition

Please choose from one of the following themes and write and submit a poem to:

stm1cpoemstop@stm.rbkc.sch.uk

Deadline: Monday 4 May 2020

Prizes will be awarded and given through the school you attend

See below for details

Themes for stmlcpoemstop competition

Choose one of the themes below and spend some time reflecting upon the theme using lectio divina or visio divina and be as creative as you can and submit your poem to:

stmlcpoemstop@stm.rbkc.sch.uk

with your full name; year group; school name and address you attend

Themes:

- ❖ Thankyou
- ❖ Mary's 'Yes' (when Mary said yes for us all to become the mother of God)
- ❖ Faith, Hope and Love in a time of COVID19
- ❖ Rededication of England as Mary's Dowry
- ❖ Easter
- ❖ The Gaze of Jesus
- ❖ Take a photo and write a poem about the photo (please note: any photos of people must have their explicit permission to take the photo and use it for the competition)

Please Note: GDPR issues: entries must include your full name; year group; the school name and address you attend. The email 'stmlcpoemstop@stm.rbkc.sch.uk' has been set up especially for this competition and will not be used for any queries or on going correspondence with any one entering a poem. The email will be deleted once the competition has been concluded. All data will then be deleted. Poems may be shared with the school leadership team from where any entrants attend. Prize winning poems maybe published on STMLC's website.

Dr T Papworth – Headteacher of STMLC